

ABSTRACT

Composition were developed which stabilize an active pharmaceutical ingredient in polymorph form susceptible to degradation or interconversion into other polymorph forms, where stabilizing substance is conveniently among silicon dioxide, silicified microcrystalline cellulose, magnesium oxide and polyethylene glycol.